

Certificate of Accreditation

Emily K. Mason

having exhibited an exemplary standard of character and a general fitness for the profession; having demonstrated a high level of competence in the practice of public relations over the prescribed period of time; having successfully passed the written and oral examinations required; and having evidenced a real interest in the development and growth of the public relations profession, is accordingly granted this Certificate of Accreditation by the Universal Accreditation Board.

April 2019

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Walter A. Cannon", written over a horizontal line.

Universal Accreditation Board Chair